All office hours will be virtual this Finals Week!
 Please try to take any make-up exams before it's too late.
 Any last-minute or extra work needs to be submitted to me by NOON on Friday. I'll stop accepting email submissions around that time as well. (And remember that any extra credit should be emailed to me as PDFs. Any late portfolio work should be put in the proper Blackboard dropbox and accompanied by an email to let me know it is now there. And any late take-home or recovery activity would be done on TopHat by special permission.)
